The game starts off fairly buggy, if you try to skip the beginning intro sequence, it'll automatically exit out of the game.
That's only a small problem,the problem that arises is that the game is literally unplayable.
You begin the game with 0$ and are not given a default vehicle, The price for the cheapest vehicle is 1000$ the only way to earn cash is to race. But without having a vehicle you cannot. Therefore the game is unplayable.
12.99$ for a game that doesn't even play and is glitchy in the beginning.. The game starts off fairly buggy, if you try to skip the beginning intro sequence, it'll automatically exit out of the game.
